Re: Documents Related to Russian Interference in the 2016 U.S. Elections

Dear Mr. Nunberg:

The Senate Select Committee on Intelligence is conducting a bipartisan inquiry into Russian interference in the 2016 U.S. elections. As part of that inquiry, the Committee requests that you make yourself available for a closed interview with bipartisan Committee staff at a mutually agreeable time, and also requests that you produce and preserve certain documents.

Specifically, the Committee requests that you provide the below documents to the Committee by the close of business on May 24, 2017. The documents requested include all documents, including all hard copies or electronically stored information (including, but not limited to, emails, text messages, direct messages, calendar appointments, memoranda, notes, images or other recorded information), related to:

1. Communications or records of communications between you and Roger Stone that relate to Russia or Russian persons, organizations, interests, or WikiLeaks, Julian Assange, DCLeaks, Guccifer 2.0, or John Podesta, between June 16, 2015, and January 20, 2017.

This request excludes documents which reside on your official Trump campaign-provided email account. After producing these documents to the Committee, should you receive or create additional documents responsive to this request, please inform the Committee promptly.

In order to maintain a full and complete record of responsive documents, the Committee also requests that you preserve:

1. All documents produced in response to the Committee's request as described above; including responsive documents received or created after your initial production of documents to the Committee; and,
2. If it is the routine practice to destroy or otherwise alter such documents, either:
 - a. Put an immediate halt to such practices; or,
 - b. Arrange for the preservation of complete and accurate duplicates or copies of such documents, suitable for production if requested; and,

3. All documents relating to or produced in response to:
 - a. Any notice of administrative, civil, or criminal legal action;
 - b. Any subpoena, search warrant, seizure warrant, summons, or other legal writ, notice, or order or request for information, property, or material;
 - c. Any request for information made to or by a third party (including but not limited to any government agency or private party); related to
 - d. Russian actions targeting the 2016 U.S. elections as described above.

For the purposes of this request, "preserve" means taking reasonable steps to prevent the partial or full destruction, alteration, testing, deletion, shredding, incineration, wiping, relocation, migration, theft, or mutation of hard copy or electronically stored information, as well as negligent or intentional handling that would make such records incomplete or inaccessible. If you are aware that, prior to receiving this letter, you deleted, destroyed, altered or lost information that would be responsive, or potentially responsive, to the request above, please notify the Committee. If you have any questions regarding your preservation obligations, contact the Committee for guidance prior to any action or inaction that could result in the destruction of responsive documents.

Please respond in writing upon receipt of this letter. If you have any questions about this letter, please contact Committee counsel Vanessa Le, at [REDACTED] or Brett Freedman, at [REDACTED].

Sincerely,

Richard Burr
Chairman
